[March 28, 2016 - Reno, NV] Reno Sculpture Fest is excited to announce the Phase 1 line-up including the sculptures, muralists, and music artists contributing to three days of larger-than-life art in downtown Reno from May 6 - 8, 2016.

Known for the "Daffodil" sculpture during the inaugural event in 2015, Peter Hazel returns with two new works, as well as bronze artist Mischell Riley, "Nails the Contraption" designers Union Phi, and iron workers Mountain Forge. Reno Sculpture Fest is excited to welcome steam-punk cartoonist Killbuck, legendary muralist Joe C Rock, and international artist J. Charboneau to the 30+ visual artists presenting at this year's event. For the complete list of artist and their biographies, please visit renosculpturefest.com/visual-artists.

Complementing the visual spectacle, Reno Sculpture Fest includes a variety of music performances including free concerts on the ReTRAC main stage including Moondog Matinee, Mojo Green, and a silent disco stage with sets by Quickie Mart and The Rhino. After dark, the celebration continues with ticketed late-night events at Cargo, 1up, 3rd Street Bar, and The Loving Cup including performances by New Orleans bounce legend BIG FREEDIA, electronic music heavyweight Kill the Noise, local rockers Hellbound Glory and Elephant Rifle, and West Coast bass DJs Dimond Saints, Lost City, M!NT, and more. For the complete list of music performers and ticket information visit renosculpturefest.com/music-artists.
